

Nancy Brinker

This week's Power of One highlights Nancy Brinker, founder of Susan G. Komen for the Cure. In 1982, Nancy founded the Susan G. Komen for the Cure after a promise to her sister, Susan G. Komen, that she would do everything in her power to end breast cancer. Each year over 40,000 women who are mothers, sisters, cousins and friends die of breast cancer in the United States. Nancy's organization has raised over $1 billion for research, education and health services to combat this cancer. It has resulted in the development of new treatment options and has saved countless lives. Brinker has even made it cool for guys to wear pink, as a sign of their support for a cure for breast cancer.

Nancy Brinker demonstrates the Power of One! What are you doing to make a difference?
